Mr. John D. Gibson
Assistant Staff Director
Reports Analysis Division
Federal Election Commission
Washington DC 20463

Dear Mr. Gibson:

This is written in reply to your letter of April 13, 1995 which was a response to my letter of March 30, 1995 to Mr. J. P. Andre. The latter letter was a reply to a March 22, 1995 communication from Mr. Andre.

Reference should be made to Identification Number C00043992 and the year end report (10/1/94-12/31/94) for the Campaign for U.N. Reform Political Action Committee. The question we are addressing seems to be concerned with Schedule B supporting line 21b, the expenditure for $5690.80.

You asked for clarifying information regarding the nature of the expenses shared between the Political Action Committee and the Education Committee. You also requested some specific dates. I shall try again to explain.

The Campaign for United Nations Reform has been in existence for 20 years. It is a relatively small operation having an annual budget of about $60000. That amount is the total for both the political and education operations. Part of the on-going work is done by volunteers including myself. There are only two regularly paid employees. They work at the office located at 713 D. Street NE, Washington DC 20003. Occasionally a summer intern is employed or someone else for a few days on a special project.

The two regular employees are the Executive Director (currently Eric Cox) and his part-time Secretary (currently Lois Jackson). For the period you are questioning a payment of $52.29 was also made to Irene Dargan.

As I indicated in my letter of March 30 the Political Action Committee is active during even numbered or Congressional election years but the Education Committee is continually active. Actually, the PAC is active in election years for only a portion of the year preceding the election. The PAC sends mailings, solicits contributions, contacts Congressional candidates, and contributes to selected campaigns. The number of recipient candidates and the respective amounts awarded are limited by the total funds received during that year. Expenses of operating the office are shared since there is only one office and one staff.

The report you are questioning was for the last quarter of 1994, a year in which the Political Action Committee was active. I, as treasurer of the Political Action Committee of the Campaign for UN Reform received an itemized listing of expenses incurred for CUNR-PAC at the national office for which I was asked to make payment from the funds of PAC of CUNR. I list the amounts and dates.

$3109.68	Payroll, Eric Cox, 10/1/94-11/15/94
667.65	Payroll, Lois Jackson, 10/1/94-11/7/94
52.29	Payroll, Irene Dargan, 10/26/94
100.00	Intern's transportation allowance, July 1994
292.56	Taxes: DC & US withholding, Social Security, Medicare, Oct. and Nov.
77.73	Employee Benefits, Oct. and Nov.
1100.00	Rent, Oct. and Nov.
65.66	Telephone, Oct. and Nov.
170.23	Postage, Oct.
60.00	Office Supplies, Oct. and Nov.

I hope this attempt at clarification will be satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

Howard L. Taylor
Treasurer
Campaign for UN Reform-PAC
